

BITTEN BY MAD HORSE

W. K. Dixon Takes Pasteur Treatment After Cows Are Also Attacked.

Portsmouth, Va., July 24.—W. K. Dixon, a dairyman at Rodman Height began to receive the Pasteur treatment as a precautionary measure against serious results from being bitten by a horse believed to have suffered from rabies. He was attacked by the horse at his dairy last Friday night. The animal died Saturday morning.

Several days ago a dog, believed to have been rabid, invaded Mr. Dixon's premises and bit the horse on the leg. It was also reported that the same dog bit several cows.

On Friday night Mr. Dixon went into the horse's stall, and the animal pawed at him and bit him on the right arm, close to the shoulder. On the following morning the animal, in a field, attracted attention when it seemed to be in convulsions plunging about and biting itself. The animal finally died.

Methodists Will Fight State Fair.

Norfolk, Va., July 24.—The Portsmouth Methodist district conference yesterday before closing its conference at Smithfield, condemned the directors of the Virginia State Fair Association of Richmond for permitting the sale of intoxicating liquors at the State fair grounds and adopted a resolution urging all Methodists of the district to remain away from the fair this fall.

Ministers were outspoken in condemnation, declaring that the attitude of the directors was a defiance of the Christian people of the State. It is proposed to carry the fight on the fair into the pulpits of the district early in the fall. The pastors will appeal to their congregations to refrain away.

At a Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, continued and held at the Court House of said City on Tuesday, July 21st, 1914.

Present, Hon. Louis C. Barley, Judge.

"About five years ago I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets after suffering from indigestion and constipation for years without finding anything to relieve me. Chamberlain's Tablets helped me at once and by using them for several weeks I was cured of the complaint," writes Mrs. Mary E. McMullen, Phelps, N. Y.

Woman's Duty to Herself.

Every woman owes it to herself to keep in good health. No one can reasonably be expected to maintain a cheerful disposition when half sick. Indigestion and constipation are two of the most common ills to which women are subject and fortunately are easily cured. Mrs. H. C. Getty, Indiana, Pa., writes: "Last summer I was advised by a friend to try Chamberlain's Tablets for indigestion and constipation. This medicine not only cured me of these disorders, but toned up my whole system so that my health has been better than for years since taking them." For sale by all dealers.
